- AGENCY U.S.A., INC., a Delaware Corporation (collectively "Defendants") are now, and at all times material herein were, corporations duly organized and existing by virtue of law and engaged in business as common carriers for hire and transportation intermediaries within the United States and this judicial district, with places of business in this district.
- 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred in this judicial district.
- 4. Plaintiff's complaint contains a cause of action for damage to cargo arising under a statute of the United States, namely the Harter Act, 46 U.S.C. 30701, et. seq. and is therefore within the jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331. Additionally, the Court has admiralty jurisdiction over these maritime contract claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1333. These are admiralty and maritime claims within the meaning of Rule 9(h) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as hereinafter more fully appears.
- 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that the Shipment was received in good order and condition by Defendants on or about July 2, 2021. Plaintiff further alleges that in exchange for good and valuable consideration each defendant agreed to transport and carry the Shipment from the port of loading in Los Angeles, California, to the place of delivery in Osaka, Japan, and there deliver said Shipment in the same condition as when received.
 - 6. The Shipment was placed upon the vessel MSC M/V Aurora V 1245.
 - 7. The Shipment arrived in Kobe, Japan on or about August 23, 2021.
- 8. The Shipment was opened for plant quarantine inspection on or about August 24, 2021. During the inspection it was discovered that not all of the cargo was frozen, despite the application for frozen cargo. The initial plant quarantine inspection was failed. The plant protection officer requested Suntory Spirits Limited (the "Consignee") to submit the phytosanitary certificate issued at the loading port because the plant protection officer was concerned the Shipment could contain harmful insects. The phytosanitary certificate was submitted by the Consignee, and the containers passed plant quarantine inspection on or about September 27, 2021.

9. 1 On or about September 29, 2021, it was requested that Nippon Kaiji Kentei 2 Kyokai ("NKKK"), an international inspection company, conduct an inspection of the Shipment. 3 The inspection occurred on or about September 29, 2021. NKKK determined that some of the 4 contents of the Shipment had leaked from their containers and that a significant number of 5 containers had thawed. Based on the temperatures of the containers and the state of the Shipment, 6 NKKK determined that the Shipment had thawed and deteriorated at some point prior to 7 devanning. The Shipment was deemed unusable. 8 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION 9 (Damage to Cargo – Harter Act) 10. 10 Plaintiff refers to and incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1-9 as though 11 fully set forth herein. 12 11. Each defendant, under contracts of carriage, namely the bills of lading, described 13 in Schedule A, and in return for good and valuable consideration, agreed to carry the Shipment 14 from the port of loading in Los Angeles, California, to the place of delivery in Osaka, Japan, and

- there deliver the Shipment in the same good order, condition, and quantity as when received to the lawful owner of the Shipment.
- 12. Thereafter, in breach of and in violation of said agreements and their duties as a common carrier of goods by sea for hire, each defendant did not deliver the Shipment in the same good order, condition, and quantity. To the contrary, the entire Shipment was deemed unusable upon receipt at the place of delivery. As a result, each defendant is liable for the total loss of the Shipment.
- By reason of each defendant's failure to deliver the Shipment in the same good 13. order and condition, each defendant has caused a loss to Plaintiff in the sum of $279,429.28, no part of which has been paid by any defendant, despite demand therefore.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for relief as hereinafter set forth.
